MARCH BROWN BAG LECTURE TO FEATURE 1950s UK BASKETBALL SCANDAL

FRANKFORT, Ky. (February 18, 2004) – On Wednesday, March 3, at 12 noon Brown Bag History participants will learn about the 1950s University of Kentucky basketball scandal. Presenting the discussion will be Micheal Hudson, curator at the Kentucky Historical Society who will examine the point-shaving scandal that shocked the college basketball world.

Participants are welcome to bring lunch and enjoy the lively one-hour discussion forum. Brown Bag History meets monthly, at noon and is held at the Kentucky History Center in downtown Frankfort. These events are free. For more information about upcoming topics, visit the Web at <http://history.ky.gov> or call (502) 564-1792, ext. 4467.
